Girlguiding & Brownies

Girlguides take part in a stimulating and enjoyable programme of activities delivered by trained volunteer leaders.

Rainbow Guides (5 - 7 years) Rainbow Guides take part in activities both in and outdoors. They play games, paint, draw and make things, listen to stories and sing songs.

Brownie Guides (7 - 10 years) Brownie Guides are given the opportunity to learn new and practical skills and how to be part of a team. They can earn badges for doing their best to meet special challenges and can also work towards a wide range of interest badges.

Guides (10 - 14 years) Guides learn all about belonging to a group, learning new skills, making new friends and helping others. Each guide is encouraged to achieve her own personal goals through a progressive programme with the opportunity to work towards a wide variety of badges.

Ranger Guides (14 - 25 years) Ranger Guides are part of the Senior Section. The Divisional Commissioners can give details of the local group for your area.

The aim of the Scouting movement is to promote the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potential as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international communities. A great deal of emphasis is placed on outdoor activities, with camping for those aged 9 years and above.

Beavers (6 - 8 years) enjoy making friends, playing games, going on visits and helping others.

Cubs (8 - 10½ years) take part in activities such as swimming, music, exploring, computing, collecting and camping.

Scouts (10½ - 14 years) are encouraged to take part in a wide range of activities including camping, survival and adventure activities.

Explorer Scouts (14 - 18 years) do not always meet weekly as they are often out at weekends or in during the school holidays doing activities. There are many Scouting groups that meet locally. The contacts listed overleaf can provide details of your local group.
